

Please strongly limit cross-ownership of media outlets in order to protect the public. Thomas Jefferson believed that without an educated public - democracy will fail. Many voices are needed and owners of multiple sources of news will, even if accidentally, limit the wide range of views needed.